

BE PART OF OUR NETWORK

In a midst of the global coronavirus pandemic where social distancing has become the new norm, we are reminded of the importance of human connection. At Singapore Global Network (SGN), we believe that building meaningful relationships has never been more important.

Whether you are a student, working professional or a businessperson, a Singaporean or someone who is keen to know about Singapore, we would like to invite you to be part of our exciting Singapore Global Network (SGN), where you can access the vibrant opportunities and meaningful connections that Singapore brings.

EXCLUSIVE ACCESS

As the world goes digital, we are reimagining traditional networking to forge authentic relationships through new means. Now, regardless of where you may be, you can participate in any of our exciting suite of virtual events.

You can also gain access to specially curated resources such as guides, news and market insights and information on business and career-related opportunities in Singapore and the region.

Lots of exciting events and content await you in the new few months. Until we meet, keep in touch & stay safe!
